

Chapel Subscriptions Now At Halfway Mark

Alumni Vote Egan President; Elect New Board Of Directors

Jerome J. Egan, '32, was chosen president of the Loyola College Alumni Association at the initial meeting at Evergreen on Friday, October 18. William J. O'Donnell, '37, and Joseph J. Curran, ex. '26, were chosen first and second vice-presidents, respectively.

The meeting was presided over by Anselm Sodaro, retiring president, and was followed by a social in the Oak Room.

Directors Elected

The Board of Directors is to be comprised of Anselm Sodaro, '31, Dr. J. Albert Chatard, '98, and James K. McManus, '43. The following amendments were made to the Constitution of the organization. The cost of dues was raised from $3 to $4 a year and the cost of life membership was increased from $50 to $100. It was also decided to empower the Financial Secretary to countersign checks.

Dr. Edward A. Doehler, Financial Secretary, reported that 415 were listed as active members for the current year as compared to 227 listed in 1945. The Association has procured 485 subscriptions to THE GREYHOUND for 1946 as compared to 254 for 1945.

Manresa Retreat Scheduled

John J. Kernan, Captain of the Alumni Retreat, reported that arrangements had been completed for the week-end retreat at Manresa Retreat House on the Severn River. The retreat will begin on Friday, December 6, and continue until Sunday, December 8, the feast of the Immaculate Conception.

Kernan urged all Alumni who can attend to place their reservations as soon as possible because of the limited accommodations available at Manresa.

A detailed report of the current sports season was outlined by Bishop Baker, Assistant Director of Athletics. Baker explained the new gymnasium seating arrangement to the members. He also spoke on the outlook of the sports season.

Dramatic Group Presents Plays

Three one-act plays will be presented by the Mask and Rapier Dramatic Society during the first week of December. The club is also planning a three-act presentation for the spring term.

"In the Zone," by Eugene O'Neill, dramatizes a tragic mistake made by British merchant seamen resulting from tension and overwrought nerves as the ship passes through the wartime submarine zone.

Second on the program will be "The Still Alarm," a situation farce by George S. Kaufman. The frame of the comedy is the plight of two businessmen, two firemen, and a bellboy, trapped on the eleventh story of a burning hotel building.

A stage adaption of the famous mystery story "The Monkey's Paw," by W. W. Jacobs, rounds out the program.

The members of the society will perform all the details of production, including scenery design and construction, promotion and publicity.

Loyola Students Represent USSR At IRC Assembly

Loyola's International Relations Club has already begun its inter-collegiate activity for the present year. Members of the club will participate in a model Security Council meeting at Catholic University on November 9 and in a similar United Nations Assembly at Vassar College during the Thanksgiving Holidays.

In conjunction with United Nations Week, which began last Monday, the club is also sponsoring a book display in the Library.

Represent Only Russia

Due to the entry of Georgetown University into the scheduled model Council meeting, Loyola's delegates will represent only Russia. Poland, which had been tentatively assigned to Loyola, has been given to Georgetown.

Heads of the IRC's participating in the Council will convene at Notre Dame of Maryland next Sunday afternoon, October 27, to settle the topic for the Council's discussion and determine other details incident to the project. The model Council is sponsored by the Maryland Regional Conference of the National Federation of Catholic College Students.

Discuss Dardanelles

Representing Russian interests, Loyola's delegates will press next Sunday for the adoption of the highly controversial problem of the Dardanelles as the topic for discussion.

(Continued on page 3, col. 5)

Jerome J. Egan, '32

Sodality Participates In Armory Gathering

The annual celebration in honor of Christ, the King, was held for the first time since the beginning of the war on October 20 in the Armory. The parade was called off because of rain.

The event was sponsored by the Holy Name Union. Loyola students served as part of the guard of honor of the presiding prelate.

Edward C. Barrett, Jr., prefect of the Senior Sodality, served as Marshal. He was assisted by George Buchness, Thomas Comber, Richard Kemp, Richard Rebbert, Terrence Burke and George Medairy, acting as aides.

College Choir Makes Initial Appearance At Requiem Mass For Deceased Students

Requiem High Mass will be offered in the Students' Chapel, Evergreen, on Saturday, November 2, All Souls' Day, at 8:00 a.m., for all deceased students of the College. Special mention will be made of those former students who lost their lives in World War II.

Invitations to the Mass have been sent to relatives and friends of deceased students and to all Alumni. Light breakfast will be served in the Oak Room after Mass.

The Rev. Joseph Dougherty, S. J., will be celebrant of the Mass. The Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S. J., will preach the sermon.

Wiegand Directs

The reorganized College Choir, under the supervision of William Wiegand, student-director, will make its first formal appearance at the Mass. Rehearsals are now being conducted by Mr. George Kent Bellows.

The Mass sung will be that of Pietro Yon, late organist and choir-director of St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York City. Because of the short time available for general rehearsals of this Mass, the more difficult parts have been assigned to a picked group of singers who have had experience in church choirs.

Wiegand And Fields Soloists

William Wiegand, tenor, and

Edward J. McClure, '38

Seniors Chosen For Who's Who

Twelve members of the senior class will be listed in the next edition of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities".

The seniors are William Cahill, Raymond Clemmens, Gus Crenson, Thomas Lalley, Mannes Greenberg, Leon Greenbaum, Peter Malloy, Tim Parr, Albert Rayner, Bernard Saltsiak, John Sweeney and William Thaler.

The purpose of the annual publication is "to serve as an outstanding honor, in which a deserving student, after showing merit in college, would be given recognition, and to establish a reference volume of authoritative information for business and personnel managers".

Selection of candidates is made on a basis of scholarship, extra-curricular activity and outstanding loyalty to the college attended.

Mr. George Kent Bellows, at extreme right, directs Glee Club at initial recital in gymnasium

Niles E. Fields, baritone, will be soloists during the Mass.

Students chosen for the special group of singers are: Edward C. Barrett, Paul H. Collins, John A. Grimm, J. Leonard Johnson, Guy E. Kagey, Lawrence J. Kessler, John J. McWilliams, George O. Murphy, Frank A. Pacienza, Joseph M. Parlett and Robert W. Reichel.

Assembly In Gym

The Glee Club made its first public appearance under Mr. Bellows' direction in the Gymnasium on October 9, before the entire student body. At this occasion, Fr. Bunn presented an engraved baton to Mr. Bellows.

For its first selection, the Glee Club sang the Marines' Hymn and then the "Rally to Victory" by the late Rev. Augustus P. Fremgen, S. J., and the "Alma Mater" by John Ozazewski, '40. Mrs. Frank Von Rinteln accompanied at the piano.

The assembly of students, with the help of small printed cards, then joined in the singing of the latter two songs.

Campaign Ends On December 8

Announcing that the campaign for funds for the Memorial Chapel at Evergreen had reached the fifty percent mark, the Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S. J., called for renewed effort on the part of the Alumni Association to complete the entire campaign by December 8.

Latest figures on the progress of the Chapel Fund show that over $200,000 has been contributed toward the overall quota of $400,000. Fr. Bunn has personally raised $120,000 of his quota of $150,000, and the Alumni Association has raised $80,000 of its quota of $250,000.

Will Print Complete List

In the next issue of THE GREYHOUND, a complete list of all contributions made or secured by Alumni will be published in accordance with a recommendation made at a recent meeting of the Alumni Class Captains. The issue will appear on Friday, November 15.

Eleven members of the Association have volunteered to spearhead the final phase of the Chapel campaign. They will compile final reports of the cooperation of each Alumnus.

These eleven volunteers will complete the task of contacting personally every member of the Alumni Association. This work was begun during the Summer under the direction of Edward J. McClure.

Completed Next Fall

"I have every hope," said Fr. Bunn, "that we will be able to break ground for the Chapel in the near future so that it may be completed sometime next Fall. I have managed to secure promises of building materials and, if we can finish in time, we will be able to accommodate many of the growing list of Maryland veterans who are at present unable to secure entry into college.

"As has been outlined in the plans, the Chapel will have an auditorium underneath which can be divided into classrooms as needed."

(Continued on page 3, col. 5)

NFCCS Meets At Notre Dame

International relations, science and drama projects will be discussed at the first meeting of the Maryland regional conference of the National Federation of Catholic College Students next Sunday. The delegates from the Catholic Colleges in Maryland will meet at Notre Dame, October 27, at 2:30 p.m.

Main topic for consideration is the model Security Council meetings sponsored by the local federation. A continuation of last year's original one act play contest and the proposed formation of an intercollegiate committee on science are also on the agenda.

The Washington headquarters of the National Federation has announced that the episcopal moderatorship has been accepted by the Most Rev. Richard Cushing, Archbishop of Boston. The local federation continues under the direction of the Rev. Aloysius K. Ziegler, of Catholic University.

Debating Society Discusses Labor, Socialized Medicine

Weekly inter-society debates are being delivered in the Bellarmine Debating Society in preparation for future inter-collegiate contests and exhibition debates. The society meets on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 in room 104.

Particular emphasis has been laid on the National College Debating Topic for the 1946 season. This topic resolves "Labor should be given a direct share in the management of industry". Also under discussion is the question of socialized medicine.

Labor Question Stressed

"We are stressing the labor question", said Dudley Shoemaker, president of the society, "because in all probability the majority of our inter-collegiate contests will argue this question. It is both timely and official."

At the second scheduled meeting of the year, Raymond Clemmens and Terrence Burke upheld the affirmative of the question, while George Alderman and Frank Gallagher argued the negative. The decision was to the negative.

Decision Reversed

This decision was reversed at the next meeting, when Donald Fay and George Herman, on the affirmative, opposed Robert Cooke and Thomas Comber.

To solve difficulties resulting from misunderstanding of the terms used in the labor question, each member delivered a five minute address at the third meeting, defining the terms in such a way as to assure a common understanding when the question was again debated.

The routine of the meetings consists in reading of the minutes, the debate proper, an open discussion from the floor, a ballot to determine the winning side, criticisms of the speeches by Mr. William-M. J. Driscoll, S. J., moderator of the society,

Dudley M. Shoemaker

old and new business, and adjournment.

Social Groups Contacted

Mr. Driscoll assisted by James Cook, secretary, has contacted sixty-five social organizations in and about Baltimore, requesting tentative dates for exhibition debates.

A series of inter-collegiate contests will be scheduled late this year or early in 1947.

Mathematician Gives Lecture

Under the direction of Mr. Walter S. Dawkins, moderator, the Mathematics Club has begun operations for the coming year. The club now meets on the third Tuesday of each month.

At the year's first meeting, the entire staff of officers for last year was re-elected. Mannes Greenberg was chosen president; William W. Cahill, Jr., vice-president; and Joseph M. Weigman, secretary.

The first in the series of lectures sponsored by the club was delivered on October 8 by John E. Carroll on the "Mathematics of Bombing". Carroll, a former bombardier in the Air Corps, explained how the Norden bombsight automatically calculates the correction factor between the height and speed of the plane and the position of the target.

At the club's meeting next Monday, October 29, Joseph M. Weigman will discuss the "Mathematics of Soap Bubbles".

Chess Players Engage Faculty

"Beat the Faculty" became the current war cry of the Chess Club last week when final arrangements for their match with the Loyola professors were completed.

The match will be held in the school library on Tuesday evening, October 29, beginning at 8 p.m. There will be no time limit on the moves.

The contest will be the first of the Club's 1946 season.

Faculty Lineup

Dr. Edward A. Doehler, professor of History, will act as captain of the Faculty team, comprised of Mr. Walter S. Dawkins and Mr. Barklay Fritz, professors of Mathematics, Mr. Francis B. Burch and Mr. Rudolph Doering, S. J., professor of German and Economics.

The Chess Club's team will be led by their president, Thomas Comber, who has chosen a tentative team composed of James Bradley, Robert Fusting, Robert Bordley and Cyril Keller. Ready to step into first string berths if necessary are Phillip Lohrey, Thomas Lalley, Jack Phillips, Albert Fitzgerald and Francis McFarland.

Future Matches Scheduled

In addition to forthcoming inter-collegiate matches, the Club has tentatively scheduled games with the Alumni, the Alpha Sigma Nu and the Baltimore Engineer's Club. Challenges have also been sent to Notre Dame and Fordham Universities for matches to be played by mail.

Most eagerly awaited match of the year will be with the Naval Academy, when the Club hopes for revenge for last year's defeat.

Fr. Dougherty Made Assistant Counsellor

The Rev. Joseph B. Dougherty, S. J., has been appointed Student Counsellor for the Sophomore and Junior classes. In this capacity, Fr. Dougherty will assist the Rev. Thomas J. Higgins, S. J., who is directing his attention to the Freshman and Senior classes. Fr. Higgins was formerly Student Counsellor for the entire student body.

Fr. Dougherty will be available in his office between twelve and one o'clock each Monday and Friday, and will hear confessions every Wednesday in the students' chapel at the same time.

During the course of the school year, Fr. Higgins and Fr. Dougherty plan to interview every student in the school. A regular schedule will be posted on the school's bulletin boards.

It really broke the ole hound's heart to put in some of that information last issue . . . some of the sinners came whining to the editor for mercy . . . but I don't intend to give 'em any at all.

APOLOGY DEPARTMENT . . . Our deepest expression of sorrow to John (They say I got to have 76) Ahlers for calling his New Orleans sweetheart Margy instead of her real name, Mary . . . and to Tom (But Smitty will be at the tea dance!) Comber who was so hard up that he had to take his little sister to the Loyola-Poly game . . . but a big pat on the back to Joe (Now that's a fallacy, Father) Connolly and Bernie (That's what it says) Saltysiak.

FRESHMAN FRIVOLITIES . . . We notice that Jim (Les go to the Valley Inn) Fusting didn't enjoy the ride home in Terry (Gotta hold it down to thirty, you guys) Burke's new car as he did on the way out . . . nor did Jim (Where are the commissions?) Brady . . . a cheer for Joe (You heard what I said) Smith's getting engaged . . . George (Me for the negative) Alderman was noticed outside the Boulevard Theatre the other night, completely surrounded by boys . . . things must be getting really tough.

OUR HEROES . . . Sid (Minipoo) Roche now specializing in hair washing . . . special consideration given to those wearing Lace (y) blouses . . . Jim (Lover) Lacy claims to be keeping bad company since he can't get out of the habit of three dates a week-end . . . we enjoyed very much the little discussion that Bill (That's not the kind of girl I want to marry) Cahill and Ed (I just love Ethics Class) McKenna had in The Greyhound Office the other day . . . they even dragged Gus (Well, I guess she'd tell you) Crenson into it . . . Buster (I'm looking for a blonde) North wasn't too cooperative to the hostesses the other night . . . we admire Frank (I've got to say goodnight!) Hopkins stunt of talking from a diagonal position . . . but Walter (How do you get out of this driveway?) Connor better not say goodnight so loud and so often.

PHILOSOPHICAL MOANS . . . In case Fr. Walsh really wants a convincing proof that there isn't any such thing as risibility, let him listen to Bill (What did those guys move away for?) Odenheimer in the cafeteria some morning . . . Andy (It don't seem right to me, Father) Geckle and John (Do evil and avoid good) Sweeney ought to read the book a little better when they're called upon . . . Johnny (the best orchestra in town is Bill Maisel) Grimm and Dick (Front seat in psychology) Kemp were having a little songfest in the cafeteria the other day . . . sounded worse than Ed (Master Ethician) McGarry's soulful rendition of the Alma Mater song the other morning . . . most people just ordered their caffeine straight, too . . . John (You mean guys pass Logic?) Krager is having his troubles with the syllogism but not half so much as Bill (I took it right out of the book!) Lister had in the Ethics test.

CHEMICAL BLUES . . . No doubt about it, Kenneth (You do it this way, Mr.) Molz has turned into the wizard of Inorganic . . . he's having close competition from Ed (Let me check that with the slide rule) Shoemaker . . . but none at all from Ed (I don't take many notes) Kohlhepp and Jim (How should I know?) Stephens . . . but coming away from this dreary subject we find . . . Andy (I don't care if the sun never shines) Olert going everywhere and always with Maggie . . . and Bill (I'll squirt you!) Shea really ought to join the Police Force . . . there's a place for him in Juvenile Court.

Photo Credits

Glee Club	Phillips
Shoemaker	Bijur
Halecki	Conway Studios
Soccer Game	Alderman
Linz	Bijur
Arthur	Phillips

WILLIAM GRILL

Contractor & Builder
Construction - Remodeling
Jobbing
3034 Clifton Park Terrace
Baltimore - 13, Md.

EZAP

Dandruff - Simple Itching Scalp
The Dandro-Nox Co.
Baltimore, Md.

Waldorf Dress Suit Co.

Men's Formal Wear
108 W. Baltimore St.
Calvert 5344

A. H. FETTING CO.

Manufacturing Jewelers
314 North Charles Street
BALTIMORE, MARYLAND

Producers of Loyola
College Rings

AT YOUR SERVICE

Gloria Tailors and Cleaners
5616 YORK ROAD
Tuxedo 1513

Albert Gunther, Inc.

HARDWARE SUPPLIES
Contract Builders
36 W. Biddle St. VE. 7437

Wagner & Wagner

PHARMACISTS
We Deliver
502 W. Cold Spring Lane
UN. 4434

IT'S SMART TO SHOP KEN'S MEN SHOP

- at -
3349 Belair Rd.
Wolfe 3349

Edgewood Pharmacy

Prescription Druggists
3514 Edmondson Ave.
Gilmor 4060
Near Edgewood Theater

MARYLAND OFFICE SUPPLY CO.

111 W. Baltimore Street
SCHOOL SUPPLIES

SEIDEL & COMPANY

FOOD BROKERS
Old Town National Bank Bldg.
Baltimore - 2, Md.

General Insurance

3600 Callaway Ave.
Liberty 2880
John J. Kernan, Jr.

WARNER AND COMPANY

18-20 East Baltimore Street

HATS FURNISHINGS SPORTSWEAR CLOTHING

J. V. BROOKS, JR.
President

LORETTO B. BROOKS
Secretary

INSURANCE—General Lines

E. CARY NALLE & CO., INC.

8-10 SOUTH STREET

Call LExington 1415-1416

Have you obtained your Students Medical Expense Accident Policy?

Is Law Your Profession?

Many Loyola undergraduates intend to enter Law School following graduation from college. Yet it is surprising to note how little the average prospective barrister knows about law as it is taught and the opportunities presented to the fledgling LL.B.

Entrance requirements for Law School vary. Some, such as Harvard and Yale demand a bachelor's degree from an accredited University. Others, such as the University of Maryland, advise the degree but will accept students who have completed their sophomore year of college. Most will make exceptions in background requirements for veterans.

No Preference Given Degree

In most cases, there is no preference in considering what degree the prospective law students possesses. A.B., B.S.I., Ph.B., and B.S.II degrees are equally acceptable. However, courses in accounting, economics, and American and English constitutional history are strongly advised.

As is true in most U. S. universities, law schools have long waiting lists. Early application for admission is strongly recommended. A courses leading to the degree of LL.B. requires three years day school or four years night school.

15 Hours Average Week

Few law schools require more than three or four lecture periods daily. But, according to a student now attending Harvard, "at least three hours after-class study are required for every hour spent in class".

No specialization is offered in the regular law school curriculum. Prospective corporation, maritime, radio, and labor lawyers receive the same training. Post-graduate courses emphasize specialization, but most lawyers drift into specialization without additional college study.

Harvard Lists Helpful Books

College students not yet decided definitely on law as a career may be helped by the "List of Advised Reading" book list distributed free by the Harvard University School of Law, Cambridge, 38, Massachusetts.

(This is the first in a series of articles planned to acquaint the student body with recent developments in various professional fields.)

ASK YOUR GROCER

for

Maryland Chief

Tomatoes

Peas

Spinach

French Style

Stringless Beans

Packed by

J. LANGRALL & BRO., Inc., Balto., Md.

Seniors Order Rings From Rochester Firm

At a recent meeting of the Student Council, it was voted that the 1946-47 contract for Loyola College rings be awarded to the Art Metal Company of Rochester, N. Y. This decision was reached only after a comparison of the bids submitted by other jewelers, both local and out of town.

The Council appointed Mannes F. Greenberg to supervise the ordering of the rings. Each ring will cost $30, including tax, and a deposit of $8 is required on each order.

Only those students who will have seventy or more credits by the end of the present semester will be allowed to wear rings this year.

Seniors Attend Lochner Funeral

George J. Lochner

Last rites for George J. Lochner, ex. '47, were held at the Immaculate Conception Church, Towson, at 10 a. m., Thursday, October 3. Representatives of the Faculty and student body of Loyola were present.

Lochner died suddenly on September 30 from complications following an appendicitis operation.

Fr. Wiegand Celebrant

The Rev. Francis Wiegand was the celebrant of the Requiem Mass. Fr. Wiegand had known George for ten years, having been stationed at St. Ambrose when the Lochner family was living in that parish.

Pallbearers at the funeral were: William Meagher, Thomas Hawkins, Howard Michel, William Cahill, John Arthur and J. Morgan Mattingly. The latter three are seniors at Loyola and members of Lochner's class.

Faculty Attends

The Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S. J., the Rev. Joseph A. d'Inviillers, S. J., the Rev. James A. Walsh, S. J., Mr. Joseph A. Sellinger, S. J., and Brother Stephen J. Alvey, S. J., were present at the Requiem Mass.

A delegation of thirty members of the Senior Class, together with other students, was also present.

VIDALI'S BAKERY

For Quality Goods
4627 York Road
1221 W. North Ave.

Howard G. Glass Co.

WESTINGHOUSE DEALER
Electrical Home Appliances
5404 York Rd. HO. 1143

JIM CORKRAN'S

FINE WINES AND LIQUORS
5406 York Road
TU. 6660

Dr. Halecki To Speak At Fall Lecture Series

by James F. Fusting

The speaker at the annual Fall lecture series this year will be the internationally known author, lecturer and diplomat, Dr. Oscar Halecki, professor of history at Fordham University.

Sponsored by the Evening School of Adult Education under the direction of the Rev. John E. Wise, S. J., the lectures will be given at Evergreen at 4 o'clock on three consecutive Sundays, November 3, 10 and 17. Dr. Halecki will discuss Germany, Russia and Poland. Friends of the College are invited to attend; no charge will be made for admission.

League Of Nations Member

Considered one of the leading authorities on eastern European history, Dr. Halecki has lectured on Polish history at the University of Krakow, served as Professor of European History at the University of Warsaw, and held the position of historical expert at the Paris Peace Conference in 1919.

He was a member of the League of Nations Secretariat at Geneva and First Secretary of the League's Committee on Intellectual Cooperation from 1921 to 1924. In 1924 also he was the Polish assistant delegate to the League of Nations Assembly.

Lectured In America

More than sixty universities in Europe, Canada and the United States have heard Dr. Halecki speak. He is a member of numerous historical and political science societies throughout the world, including the Royal Historical Society of London, the Institute of France, Medieval Academy of America, and the American Academy of Political and Social Science.

A contributor of numerous articles to periodicals during his career, he is also the author of seventeen books, eleven of which are in Polish, three in French, two in English and one in German.

Perhaps his best known works are History of Polish-Lithuanian Union, The League of Nations, Un Empereur de Byzance à Rome, and A History of Poland. The latter was published in 1943.

Professor At Fordham

In 1939, Dr. Halecki assumed the presidency of the Polish University in Exile in Paris. In 1940 he was called to America as visiting Professor of History at Vassar; he taught there until 1942, when he became Director of the Polish Institute of Arts and Sciences in America.

Dr. Oscar Halecki

Dr. Halecki began his Fordham Professorship last year. In his current Loyola lectures, he treats topics of prime and immediate importance from a vantage point of long experience and unusual background: Germany, Russia and Poland.

Chemists Plan Lecture Series

Dr. Henry C. Freimuth, a member of the Chemistry Department, will address the Chemistry Club on October 29. His address will initiate a series of lectures on topics relating to industrial chemistry for the coming term.

The Rev. Edward S. Hauber, S. J., moderator of the club, revealed the tentative lecture schedule at the organizational meeting of the club on October 17.

The chief chemist at the Maryland Glass Corporation, Dr. Lester, will deliver the second lecture on November 15.

Possible speakers for subsequent lectures include Mr. William Krantz of the University of Maryland, speaking on anaesthetics, and Mr. Walter Murphy, editor of the Journal of Industrial and Chemical Engineering, whose topic will be chemistry as a profession.

The final lecture of the series will be delivered by a representative of the Du Pont Corporation.

THE EAGER HOUSE

COCKTAIL LOUNGE
RESTAURANT
15 W. Eager St.

MUNDER'S

GOOD FOOD & FINE DRINKS
4536 Harford Rd.

OREY'S Bar-B-Q INC.

25th Street at Kirk Ave.
24 Hour Service
Sandwiches Soft Drinks

M. GREENEBAUM AND SONS

DIRECT DIAMOND IMPORTERS AND JEWELERS
2200 E. Monument St. 104 N. Howard St.
Wo. 0523 Sa. 4544

THE STORE THAT'S FAMOUS FOR FAMOUS MAKES

THE HUB
Baltimore - Charles - Fayette

LEON T. POWERS

Prescription
OPTICIAN
Medical Arts Building

EDNA G. ROCK

APARTMENT SPECIALIST
927 St. Paul Street
Vernon 1223-1224

Reunion Held By Sodalists

Highlighting Sodality activity for the month of October were the initial meeting of the Sodality Union of Baltimore and the election of officers for the Junior Sodality.

The meeting, presided over by Edward C. Barrett, president of the Union, was held at the old Loyola High School Gymnasium at 11:30 a. m. Formation of the various committees was the first order of business. Each committee is composed of at least one representative from each of the five schools which comprise the Union.

Father Gouch Addresses Group

The Rev. Walter Gouch, C. S. P., moderator of the Newman Club of Johns Hopkins, addressed the members of the Sodality Union on the newly established Catholic Information Center situated opposite St. Alphonsus Church.

A list of the duties and occupations in which Sodality members may be able to aid the work of the Center will be presented at the next meeting.

Officers Listed

Elections for the Sophomore-Freshman Sodality were conducted on October 10 at the weekly meeting at 8:15 a. m.

The successful candidates and their respective offices are Francis Janowiak, prefect; James J. Lacy, vice-prefect; Francis X. Gallagher, secretary; and Donald E. Fay, treasurer.

Chapel Campaign...

(Continued from page 1, col. 5)

sary. We will thus be able to furnish additional room for larger classes as well as adequate religious facilities."

List Of Chapel Workers

Heading the list of Chapel workers in this final phase is Isaac S. George, '01, chairman of the Alumni participation. He will have charge of the classes from 1900 to 1910.

Other workers are: Dr. J. Albert Chatard, 1890-1900; James P. Walsh, 1810-15; John Farrell, 1915-20; Frank Horigan, 1920-25; Lingard I. Whiteford, 1925-30; Charles Bender, 1930-35; Edward McClure, 1935-38; Robert Rector, 1938-42; and Carl F. Gottschalk and George Miller, 1942-46.

IRC Meeting

(Continued from page 1, col. 3)

sion at the November assembly. Other colleges will also submit suggestions for the Council's agenda.

Instead of limiting participation in the Council to the Catholic colleges of the Baltimore-Washington area, three non-sectarian colleges have also been invited to participate. George Washington, Maryland, and American Universities will be represented. Details of the conference are being handled by Marjorie Cohen, Trinity College, who is Secretary-General.

Beauty Counselor Cosmetics
"GIFTS FOR ANY TIME"

Demonstrations and Advice by

MRS. JERRY CRAWFORD

2905 N. Charles St.

Belmont 9300

"Beauty Counselor" Products

Xmas Gifts

Xmas Gifts

THE GREYHOUND

Published by The Greyhound, Loyola College, Evergreen, Cold Spring Lane and Charles St., Baltimore-10, Md., triweekly except holidays and periods of examinations.

Volume XX, Issue No. 2 October 25, 1946

Editor-in-Chief
Thomas Lalley

Business Manager
Robert Reichel

Advertising Manager
William Cahill

Circulation Director
John Arthur

News Editor
Terrence Burke

Copy Editor
Richard Rebert

Feature Editor
Gus Crenson

Exchange Editor
John Krager

Sports Editor
Tim Parr

Headline Editor
Frank Goldsmith

Photo Editor
Albert Tiedemann

James Ahlers
Edward Barrett
Thomas Comber
Joseph Davis
James Fogarty

James Fusting
Frank Gallagher
Mannes Greenberg
William Heffner
George Herman

Theodore Heying
Cyril Keller
Charles Kimmel
C. Rodgers Kines
James O'Neill

Sports Staff
Spencer Davidson
Donald Fay
Thomas Gisiel

Photography Staff
Ryan Bijur

Advertising Staff
Calvert Kenning

Maurice Mackey
Raymond Parr

John Phillips

William Johnson

Telephone—Ch. 9616

Subscription—One Dollar a Year

Entered as second-class matter August 13, 1943 at the post office at Baltimore, Maryland, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

ACP Rating—All American

Member
Associated Collegiate Press
Member
National Catholic Press Assn.

Who Cares?

Few people bother to read editorials any more. Even fewer bother to read editorials which appear in student newspapers.

The reasons for this latter apathy are not hard to understand. If the editorial is on an international plane, then the observations of a student could certainly not clarify the situation; if the editorial is on some phase of campus life, then the popular assumption is that nothing can be said which hasn't already been said ad nauseam by hundreds of other eager editors. This general loss of prestige can be ascribed, not to the subject matter of the editorials, but to the fact that editorials often lack even any attempt at constructive thought.

It is, then, with this in mind, that THE GREYHOUND has substantially changed the make-up of this page. We want students to read our editorials and to comment upon them in the columns reserved for that purpose. We want your cooperation in making the editorial page what it should be: the most important page of any newspaper.

United Nations Week

Last year, in a gesture of Barnumesque showmanship, President Truman flew from San Francisco to Washington carrying the newly-drawn United Nations' Charter to the United States Senate. The Charter was so popular at that time that any senator who voted against it was virtually signing his political death warrant.

Many of us thought that this at last was international paraceia. It was with some alarm that we soon discovered that nations were still suspicious, still greedy and still devoted to the principle of inviolable sovereignty.

Casting aside all idealism, it is only common sense to say that the future of the world lies between a successful United Nations and chaos. This week, the International Relations Club is sponsoring a book display in the Library as part of its observance of United Nations Week. It is hoped that many students will take this opportunity to learn more about the organization which is our only hope for world peace.

Veteran Problem

Those of us who remained at home, for one reason or another, while the great majority of college students were in the armed services, can remember the excited speculation about the condition of the returning veteran. Few, it is true, went so far as to predict ominously psychiatric disorders and wrecked campuses, but many educators were a little worried. We had heard so much about a "veteran problem" that we were actually convinced there was one.

When the first contingent of veterans arrived on the campus, still very much in the minority, they were looked upon with careful scrutiny. In like fashion, each succeeding class was searched for signs of abnormality until the whole quest had to be given up because of the rapid succession of incoming classes, the majority of whom were veterans. Those with a flare for the lurid were greatly disappointed: the veteran turned out to be perfectly normal.

As Andre Maurois has pointed out, the college classes in which there are a large number of veterans are the most intelligent on the campus. Only the extra-curricular activities have any cause for complaint.

At Loyola, there can be no doubt that the high class averages which Father d'Inviilliers announces at each Assembly are due mainly to the efforts of the veteran students. While last year, the various activities seemed to have difficulty in enrolling veterans as permanent members, the situation seems to have changed and veterans may point already to their accomplishments in the Glee Club and GREYHOUND this year. In short, Loyola's so-called "Veteran Problem" has solved itself.

Condolences

THE GREYHOUND, on behalf of the Faculty and Student Body of Loyola College, extends its condolences to the family of George Lochner and to Tim Parr and his family, on the death of his father.

Books On Review

by Gus A. Crenson

Lord Hornblower by C. S. Forester.

This book, its author has announced, will be the last in the series recounting the adventures of the redoubtable Hornblower, pride of His Majesty's Navy and wily opponent of Napoleon's might. These adventures take Hornblower from Commodore to Peer of the Realm.

The book opens with Hornblower's assignment to subdue and bring back for punishment the mutinous crew of the brig, Flume. The mutineers had demanded that their Captain be hanged and amnesty granted to them or else they would surrender their ship to the French.

Hornblower's tactical skill and his uncanny ability to predict the reactions of his opponents, coupled with luck that reaches out to snatch him even from the grave, run this ticklish, but rather minor task, into an invasion of the fortified mainland of France and the restoration of the Bourbon dynasty.

The adventures of Horatio Hornblower are kept out of the swashbuckling class and are rendered believable because of the author's attention to the consistency and the human weakness of his man. Horatio, no matter how seemingly favored by fortune, no matter how well fortified with experience and knowledge, is always gnawed with uncertainty as to the success of any venture. But no matter how uneasy he has been, no matter how depressed with his inadequacies, the hero gains his self confidence as he goes into action. He hides his self-doubts with a show of brusqueness toward his fellow officers and brazen aggressiveness toward his foes. The reader of popular psychology will readily recognize in Hornblower an inferiority complex with a tinge of overcompensation.

Lord Hornblower, although more than an adventure story, is not a profound study of a hero. Mr. Forester did not intend it to be. It is a narrative of the times, giving a credible picture of the details aboard British men-of-war.

Letters To The Greyhound

Hello, Mr. D:

I was just trying to imagine what the Army would be like if all the sergeants were Jesuits. In the morning we would wake up, throw open the window, and while breathing diaphragmatically, recite a-e-i-o-u. But turning in the sergeants for Jesuits might not be a bad idea at that. It would surely improve the vernacular in the army!

I think they named this state incorrectly when they called it the "blue grass region". All the grass I've seen so far was dead. But then you can never judge a state by the inside of an army camp.

Say hello to Mr. Sellinger for me and to everyone else at school. So long for now.

As ever,
Frank

J. Frank Griffin, RA 13203323
Troop C, 13th Cav. Sqd. (Mech.)
1st Reg. R. T. C.
Fort Knox, Ky.

Dear Mr. Driscoll:

Let me begin by giving you a bit of sound advice. Don't ever join the army. The posters you see in front of the Post Office Building are nothing but propaganda. Believe me. But seriously, it's not so bad. The Army did a pretty good job of splitting us up. Cuculis and Beyer are in Virginia; Frannie Meagher, Al Mason and Johnnie Mercaldo are with me in the armored infantry; and Hatch, Herbert, Griffin and DiNardo are in mechanized cavalry. We are all in the same camp but we haven't seen each other as yet, but we're going to try to get together next week.

If we stay in this outfit we'll learn to drive tanks and two and one-half ton trucks. Besides that, everyone learns to fire the rifle, .45 automatic, .30 calibre machine gun, and 90 mm. cannon. If a teacher says one wrong word to us when we get back we'll probably blow his brains out. But don't worry, we'll take it easy on you. Ha! Ha! (Sic!)

Lights go out soon so I'll say good bye for now. Say hello to all the fellows for me.

Sincerely,
Oke.

Pvt. John T. O'Connor,
RA 13209931,
Co. A, 5th BN 2nd Reg. RTC
Fort Knox, Ky.

Fort Knox, Kentucky

Dear Mr. Driscoll,

Here I am at Fort Knox, away out in nowhere. It might as well be Tibet as far as getting home is concerned. But really it looks like a good camp. The food has been wonderful and the barracks clean.

Of the original eleven, only eight left Camp Meade together. As you probably know, Bob Hays was rejected the first day. Otto Beyer and John Cuculis were shipped separately.

We left Fort Meade at two o'clock on Saturday and twenty-four hours later we arrived at Knox. We traveled by pullman, which is a fancy word for nothing. Al Mason and I shared a crowded lower.

Had we come straight through Virginia and West Virginia to Kentucky it would have taken twelve hours at the most, but we came the army way. We passed through D. C., Virginia, Western Maryland, West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana down to Kentucky.

When we arrived here, the remaining eight were divided. Hector, Fred, Frank and Jack Herbert are together in a mechanized cavalry training company. Oaks, Johnny, Al Mason and I are together in an armored infantry company.

Please give my regards to Mr. Sellinger, Fathers Walsh, McKay, d'Inviilliers and the rest, and to the fellows in the sophomore classes. Al Mason and Johnnie Mercaldo send their regards.

Sincerely,
Frannie Meagher
RA13209943
6A 5th Bn 2nd Rgt R. T. C.
Fort Knox, Kentucky

Hi, Mr.,

How you all? How are tennis and communism making out? Has Allen given you any trouble lately?

Mister, the best way to appreciate your home and college is to join the army. I remember griping about things at school. Well, that isn't anything compared with what the army has to offer.

Yours,
Hector
Hector Di Nardo 13209926
Troop C 13; Cav. Sqd. (Mech.)
1st Reg. R. T. C.
Fort Knox, Ky.

Crawford Gives Initial Lecture To Mendel Club

"Parthenogenesis" was the title of the lecture delivered by Jerry Crawford at the second meeting of the Mendel Club, held on Wednesday, October 23. The lecture, the first of a series of ten which are to be presented, dealt with the subject of virgin birth which occurs in some plant life and lower forms of life.

The Rev. Joseph S. Didusch, S. J., professor of Advanced Biology and moderator of the club, announced that a lecture would be delivered every three weeks by Senior members of the club.

Officers Chosen

Raymond L. Clemmens has been chosen president of the club, Leon J. Greenbaum, Jr., vice-president, Benjamin S. Crosby, secretary, Edward J. McKenna, treasurer, and George F. Buchness, sergeant-at-arms.

The list of future speakers includes the following students: William Shea, Leon Greenbaum, Edward J. McKenna, Herbert Prescott, William Jones, George Medairy, James MacDonald and Luther Karst.

Next Meeting Scheduled

Ray Clemmens will deliver the second lecture before the Society at the next meeting on Wednesday, November 20. The topic of his lecture will be entitled "The Endocrine Glands".

The meetings are held in the Biology lecture room on the third floor of the Science Building.

News In Brief

Roman Paska, ex. '44, recently discharged from the Navy, is now taking a post-graduate course in Engineering at Villanova. After completing this course, Roman intends to continue his studies at the University of Pennsylvania.

* * *

A baby girl was born to Dr. and Mrs. Robert May during the latter part of September. Dr. May, a member of the Class of 1940, is now an interne at Mercy Hospital. He is the brother of Mr. Joseph May, a member of the Faculty of Loyola College.

* * *

Sal Cammarata, ex. '45, visited the campus recently while on terminal leave. He plans to resume his studies at Loyola next semester.

* * *

Sgt. Stewart Koehler, ex. '45, expects to be discharged sometime this month. He has been stationed on Okinawa for the past few months.

* * *

George W. McManus, '43, visited the campus recently. George, former editor of THE GREYHOUND, is attending the Harvard University School of Law.

* * *

The faculty played host to the parents of the student body at a reception held in the gymnasium on Sunday, October 13.

Rogers Grocery

509 York Road
Towson, Maryland
Phone—Towson 333
WE DELIVER

McPherson's Haberdashers

Redwood & Light St.

Plunkett Discusses Change In Education Of Japanese

This photograph was taken by a staff photographer of the "Ishikawa Shimbun" in front of a Shinto Temple in Kanazawa during the Spring Festival. John Plunkett, author of the article, is at the extreme left.

by John H. Plunkett, ex. '45

One of the most important accomplishments of the Occupational Forces in Japan is the supervision of changes in the Japanese school system. Surprisingly enough there have been no really radical changes in the thirteen months of the Occupation. The great majority of the teachers and school officials have shown their willingness to cooperate with the "democratizing" and "demilitarizing" of the course of studies and thus there has been no all-out purge of former teachers.

Teachers and school officials are, however, being screened by educational committees sponsored by the Military Government Teams located in every Japanese Prefecture. Most are found acceptable but those who seem capable of contaminating young Japanese minds are directed to seek employment in a less sensitive occupation.

Six Years Elementary School

As in most western nations, school begins for the average Japanese boy or girl at the age of six or seven. At this time, they enter the Kokumin gakko, which corresponds to our grammar school. Here they study the reading, writing, and arithmetic of all elementary schools, except that reading and writing is a little more difficult for them than it is for the boy or girl of the western nations.

After six years of elementary or middle school, which would roughly correspond to our junior school, the students go to Chu gakko high school. In all of these schools, children still wear uniforms and boys wear insignia on their visored caps to identify which school they attend.

After five years of middle school, Koto gakko or higher school, is the next step. This corresponds to American high school, where as in middle school, boys and girls play volley ball, baseball and swim in the summer. At completion of higher school, those who aspire for more knowledge, may take the entrance examinations to a college or university (Dai gakko). This examination is very difficult and usually only students in the top half of the class ever consider going to college.

School Buildings Unattractive

The schools of Japan are on the whole very unattractive by American standards. The average middle school is a group of large wooden buildings, unpainted or painted a drab gray or yellow. There is little ground around any of the schools and except for a few sand lots, reserved for sports, what little ground there is normally is planted with crops or covered with weeds. No one seems to care about the landscape.

Student Governments Started

In some middle and higher schools, the students are electing student councils and student body officers in order to get a look at democracy first hand. But such movements are hampered by a complete lack of understanding of the true meaning of democracy on the part of students and teachers alike.

Due to the food shortage, students and teachers alike must work after hours cultivating fields in the vicinity of the school and others work on the miniature farms of their families. Also due to the fact that it is more economical for students to eat with the rest of the family at home, none of them can bring lunches anymore.

Some say that it will take five years before the Japanese school system is running smoothly, but in spite of the fact that the organization is not as efficient as it might be, Japanese parents may be reasonably sure that their sons and daughters are now learning the true and peaceful way of life.

Manufacturers of Paper Boxes

George P. Killian Co.

1211 Penna. Ave., N. W.
Washington, D. C.

Liquors - Cordials - Wines - Etc.

Charles Liquor Store

WE DELIVER

Ice Cold Beer

4009 Old York Rd.

Baltimore-18 - Bel. 9747

Tux. 0146

Tux. 2500

ALUMNI DOINGS

By Edward A. Doehler, '30

At the Executive Committee Meeting on October 4 it was decided to hold an Alumni Oyster Roast on the afternoon of Sunday, December 15, in the Oak Room of the Library Building at Evergreen. The Committee arranging the roast is headed by J. Joseph Curran, '26, and Charles J. Bell, '33, acting as co-chairmen. Tickets at $2.50 are obtainable from the Committee members and Class Captains or by mail through the Alumni Office.

The Committee promises a fine menu and a pleasant afternoon. This advance notice is given in order that you may be sure to keep the date open on your calendar. Make your reservations now and be sure that you will not miss this opportunity to spend an enjoyable afternoon with your classmates.

Notes Gathered At Reunion Banquet

In the course of the Banquet held at Evergreen on October 12 the following information was obtained about members of the Class of October '43.

Jack Boerner, Buck Lanier, Jim Plunkett and Ed Steffy have entered U. of M. Law School. Bill Judge recently accepted an Assistantship in Physics at Duke University. Norbert Wagner is now teaching Physics at the University of Maryland. Charles Bitterli and Dick Molloy are pursuing graduate studies in Mathematics at Hopkins. Frank Machata and Harry Chase will complete their last year of medical studies at U. of M. this year. Hugh Monaghan recently received his Bachelor of Laws Degree from Georgetown Law School. Dick Oppitz is now teaching Greek and German at Loyola High School. Bill Talbott, Chris Mollis and Bill Roth are completing their dental courses at U. of M. Dental School.

Other Alumni Items

In the recent Bar Examination held in Baltimore two Alumni members distinguished themselves by placing high on the lists. Frank Horka, '43, tied for third place while Norman P. Ramsey, ex. '43, ended in a tie for fifth place.

On October 26, wedding bells will ring for a member of the Class of '46 when William M. Duggan, Jr., will be married to Miss Mary Jane Eichelman at St. Clement's Church, Lansdowne, Maryland. Among the marriage announcements of recent date was that of John W. Slattery, '40 to Miss Virginia Elizabeth Crane in Anderson, Indiana.

C. Gilbert Dunn, '44, reports from Cincinnati, Ohio, that he is engaged in the study of Pharmacy.

From the ranks of the legal profession comes notice that J. Harold Grady, '38, formerly a Special Agent, Federal Bureau of Investigation, has become associated in the general practice of law with Michael F. Delea, '23.

Many items have reached us concerning Alumni physicians. Dr. Nathan Canter, 1st Lt. U. S. A. (M. C.), has recently joined the staff of Veterans Hospital, Perry Point, Maryland. Dr. Arthur T. Hall, Jr., '42, is working with the Army in Texas. Dr. Vincent Fitzpatrick, Jr., '42, also with the Army, is stationed at Langley Field, Va. One of our Navy physicians, Lt. (j.g.) Joseph E. Reahl, is at present stationed at Veterans Hospital, Roanoke, Va.

Among the members of the Association still with the armed forces is Lt. Col. John de V. Patrick, '31, at present serving in Europe and recently awarded the Czechoslovakian Military Cross for assistance rendered to that country.

Charles O. Fisher, recently discharged from the Army, has returned to his practice of law in Westminster. Before entering the service, he had passed the Maryland State Bar Examination although he had not completed law school. Charley is now studying law at night in addition to his practice.

WATERS CAFE

BEER

WINES — LIQUORS

4425 Belair Road
Baltimore, Md.

The Big Home Furnishing Store
Where You Feel At Home

Four Besche Brothers

1041-43-45-47 Light St.

BROMO-SELTZER

for

HEADACHES

GRAUEL'S MARKET

Everything in Fine Food
Three Convenient Locations
5113 & 4032 Roland Ave.
6242 Bellona Ave.

INDEPENDENT BEEF COMPANY

COMPLETE FOOD MARKETS

Beer — Wines — Liquors

531 Rose Hill Terrace

897 N. Howard Street

Un. 2251

Ver. 7430

HOLLY'S

for

Cocktails

3333 Greenmount Ave.

Washington College Booters Nip Hounds In 1-0 Thriller

With the ball only inches from the goal, a Washington College defenseman deflects a hard shot by Jim Murphy during a tense moment in the Shoremen-Hound soccer contest last Saturday. Murphy, whose sure-footed kicks kept the Green and Gray in the game all the way, is shown directly behind the kicker, while the enemy goalie, who was drawn from the cage on the shot, is racing back to guard the webbing.

Rider College Defeats Hounds By 2-0 Margin

Plagued by a damp field and strong crosswinds, the Greyhound soccer team suffered its first defeat of the season at the hands of Rider College on October 12th. The Trenton team won the contest, played on Rider's field, by a 2-0 score.

The first tally came after six minutes of the initial period had elapsed. Starlings, Greyhound goalie, blocked an attempted corner shot, and in the ensuing scramble to clear the ball, Swiecone, inside right for the New Jersey eleven, kicked it into the net for a score.

Linz And Bullington Sparkle

The next two quarters were scoreless, as control of the ball see-sawed back and forth with neither team able to muster scoring power. Bill Linz and Harry Bullington sparked on offensive play for Loyola, repeatedly carrying the play deep into Rider territory.

The Trenton booters marked up their second goal two minutes and six seconds after the final period began. Starlings came out of the net to play a long shot, but the ball was deflected by the wind and bounced off the shoulder of a Rider player into the goal.

Greyhounds Praised

The Rider aggregation, which has played the best teams in the East and lost only one game to Army by a 3-2 score, praised the Greyhounds as the best team they have encountered this year.

Loyola 0 0 0 0—0
Rider 1 0 0 1—2

Goals: Swiecone (6:00 First Period), Procaccino (2:06 Fourth Period).

LOYOLA	POSITION	RIDER
Starlings	Goal	Creco
Haas	L. F.	Piffith
Filbert	R. F.	Arbitell
Bevans	L. H.	Petrino
Grill	R. H.	Walker
Linz, W.	C. H.	McCroarty
Murphy	C. F.	Procaccino
Seltzer	O. L.	Walsh
Vidali	O. R.	Derrico
Linz, H.	I. L.	Malone
Bullington	I. R.	Swiecone

Substitutes: Loyola—Boulay (O. R.), Boone (R. H.). Rider—Owens (I. L.)

M-D Loop Shifts Tourney Site; Sets Up Programs

The Mason-Dixon Conference basketball tournament, conducted here at Loyola since the loop was formed six years ago, will be held next March 6-7-8 at Catholic University, in Washington, according to plans announced at the annual fall meeting of conference members. Athletic programs for the coming year were set up and officers were elected at the meeting.

Reason for the switch, say the loop bigwigs, is as much a matter of "change of scenery" as anything else. The affair has always packed in the fandom here, but it is held very probable that the event will alternately be conducted in Washington and Baltimore, the loop's most accessible cities.

Teams must play at least eight conference games to be eligible for the tournament.

Delaware Site Of Track Meet

The annual track and field championships, a fixture at both Johns Hopkins and Catholic University since the formation of the circuit, will also find a new resting place this spring when eleven member colleges will send aggregates to the University of Delaware for a one-day meet on May 10. Only Mt. St. Mary's will not be represented.

The Dickinson scoring system, allowing 30 points for a win, 22½ for a tie and 15 for a defeat, will be employed to settle the soccer championship. Washington, Western Maryland, Delaware, Hopkins and Loyola will compete for the crown.

Gallaudet Cross-Country Host

Six schools, with a seventh uncertain at this time, will participate in the cross-country championship at Gallaudet on November 26.

Wrestlers will convene at Western Maryland for a one-day session on March 8. Seven colleges have announced their definite intention of competing while Delaware will play host to four other swimming squads in the aquatic championships on March 15.

Tennis Regulations Cited

The tennis titlists will also be decided under the Dickinson system. A minimum of five matches with other league members must be played to insure eligibility for the loop diadem.

Baseball teams must schedule eight conference tiffs and play a minimum of six to become eligible for the diamond title.

The date and site of the golf championship is to be announced.

Havens Is President

Charlie Havens, of Western Maryland, was elected to the presidency of the conference, a post he filled in 1941-42, succeeding Dorsey Griffith of C. U.

William McClure, Gallaudet, is the vice president, and Fred Dumschoot, Washington College, treasurer. A. Paul Menton is commissioner of the conference.

Shoremen Score Lone Goal Early In Mason-Dixon Inaugural Tilt

by Don Fay

Displaying a fine passing game and an impassable defense, a scrappy band of Washington College booters ruined Loyola's post-war debut in Mason-Dixon soccer competition with a 1-0 victory over the Hounds last Saturday afternoon on the Evergreen pitch.

Booters Face Western Md.

Loyola's improving soccer team journeys to Westminster this afternoon to engage Western Maryland in a Mason-Dixon conference tilt slated for 4:00 p. m.

With the valuable experience gained in the quartet of contests played to date, Bish Baker's charges expect to field a club capable of giving the Terrors a stern battle.

Hope To Continue Streak

The Hounds have displayed gradual but noticeable improvement in all departments, and will enter the clash bent on continuing their winning ways against the Terrors. The teams last played in 1942, the Green and Gray triumphing by a 2-0 count.

The Hounds' forward wall of Bill Linz, Jim Murphy, Buns Vidali and

Bill Linz

Gene Seltzer has left little to be desired, and hopes to boost its scoring total at the expense of the home team this afternoon. Linz, the sure-footed center half, is the only member of the present team who saw action against Western Maryland three years ago.

Linz Outstanding

With both scholastic and collegiate experience behind him, Linz has assumed the pace setter's role, and the Terrors will have to stop him if they entertain any hope of victory.

The defense, with Haas, Filbert, Bevans, Grill, H. Linz and Pete Starlings, goalie, has also steadily improved with each game.

Striking early to score what proved to be the lone goal of the contest, the Shoremen relied on their fine defensive work for the remainder of the tilt to emerge victorious in their second outing of the campaign.

Visitors Score Early

Only two and a half minutes of the opening quarter were history when the visitors forced the ball deep in the Hounds' territory after a throw-in from mid field. A long kick from the corner hit the top of the wooden frame of the net, and as Pete Starlings, Loyola goalie, leaped in an attempt to grab the ball, it caromed off to the side and was headed in the webbing by an alert Washingtonian.

Throughout the remainder of the initial period, most of the action was confined to the center of the field, as both teams succeeded in breaking up the other's offense before it was really under way.

Starlings Makes Neat Save

No serious penetration came until midway of the second session when the visitors moved the ball in close, and some spirited competition resulted in front of Loyola's cage.

After a full minute of exciting hostility, Starlings made a sensational save with a lunge to his left on a shot only inches off the ground.

Hounds On Offensive

Loyola took up the offensive in the second half, and although Bish Baker's charges were in opponent territory for the most part of the closing minutes, they failed to muster enough scoring strength to dent the webbing.

The Linz brothers and Jim Murphy made several brilliant attempts, while Ray Bevans and Harry Bullington aided in breaking up numerous plays at mid-field.

Director Appoints New Cheer Leaders

Under the direction of Mr. Joseph A. Sellinger, S. J., four newly uniformed cheer leaders will lead the spectators at basketball games through eight new cheers, parodies and songs. Headed by George Herman and Andy Olert, both from Mt. St. Joe, the new squad will also include Rodge Kines and Bill Heffner.

Parodies of "South America, Take It Away", "All That Glitters Is Not Gold" and "Go Home, Your Mudder's Callin'" are included in the pep-routers.

The squad will make its debut at the varsity-alumni contest on November 30.

Senior Aggregation Paces Field In Intramural Touch Grid Race

With the return of autumn and football weather, Loyola students turned toward their only type of football, intramural touch football. When Lefty Reitz, director of intramurals, asked for team entries, seven teams responded. The teams competing are as follows: Seniors, Hustlers, Rix Raft Rufflers, Wildcats, Ramblers, Zeros and Rumdums.

The teams, organized into only one league, will face each other once during the season. The games are usually played during the 12:30

Individual Scoring
PLAYER	TEAM	TOTAL PTS.
Wintz	Seniors	30	Barry	Wildcats	6
Galvin	Seniors	18	R. Connor	Seniors	6
McGarry	Seniors	18	Davis	Hustlers	6
Sybert	Hustlers	11	E. O'Connor	Seniors	6
Krug	Rumdums	7	S. Roche	Seniors	6
			Rodgers	Seniors	6

lunch period. When class schedules interfere the teams play at 2:30 p. m.

Up to the writing of this article five games have been played. A strong Senior team has won all three of its engagements. It has trounced Rix Raft Rufflers 29-0, the Rumdums 34-7 and the Hustlers 27-7. In these three trouncings the educated toe of Wish Galvin, of the Senior team, stood out. He scored eight points after touchdowns and four points for a field goal, besides scoring one touchdown for six points. Jack Wintz, also of the Senior team, through his ability of snaring passes scored five touchdowns for thirty points.

A hard fought battle was witnessed in the encounter of the Wildcats and the Hustlers. A field goal by Sybert was the deciding factor as the Hustlers won 10-6.

Another thrilling game was seen between the Ramblers and the Rumdums. These two fought to a scoreless tie.

Running With The Hounds

by Tim Parr

With the return of the Greyhound soccer team to Evergreen after a three year layoff, and the reorganization of Soccer in the Mason-Dixon Conference, the prospects of an outstanding team in the near future are growing very rosy.

Under the able guidance of their new coach Bish Baker, the Green and Gray booters are compiling a reputable record. In the opening game of the season with West Chester State Teachers College the Hounds were victorious 4-2.

The only returning veteran of the crack '42 squad is versatile Bill Linz, center half, who gained much experience on local championship scholastic and sandlot teams. Bill's bullet-like kicks and fine foot work make him a strong contender for the most valuable player on the squad. Jim Murphy, a running mate of Linz in high school, is an outstanding center forward. His powerful left-footed kicks have contributed much to the success of the Hounds this season. Pete Starlings, rookie goalie, shows promise of being one of the top net tenders in the conference. An aggressive halfback whom opponents find exceptionally tough to play out of position, and keystone in the team's forward wall, is Ray Bevans. Ray always turns in a fine performance. Another very aggressive halfback is Harry Bullington. Heimie Linz, brother of veteran Bill, is a clever dribbling inside left, and possesses a powerful shot with either foot. One of the most consistent players in the Green and Gray defense is the steady and sure footed fullback Al Filbert.

The Hounds are playing a seven game schedule with five games against conference foes, and two non-conference encounters. In the opening game against West Chester State Teachers College, the caliber of soccer exhibited removes any doubt about the team's ability to play in intercollegiate competition.

In answer to the first call for candidates, coach Baker was greeted by several former high school stars and a host of promising rookies. Although the team was a little slow in rounding into shape, daily drills in footwork and scrimmage have produced some reliable reserves.

* * * * *

From accounts of games played to date it seems that the team to beat in the Intramural Football League is the Senior Aggregation. In winning three games to date, they have run up scores of 29-0, 27-7 and 34-7. Other teams showing great promise, and top contenders for the lead are the Hustlers and the Zeros.

* * * * *

The cross country team is gradually building itself into a smooth running outfit after a slow start. The first of next month the team journeys to Johns Hopkins for a meet, to be followed by the running of the Mason-Dixon Championship Meet, and the South Atlantic Meet later in the month.

* * * * *

The Block L Dance held earlier in the month was a big success, judging from the size of the crowd. It appears that the purpose in holding the dance has been accomplished, and the proposed electric score board will be installed in the Evergreen Gym for the coming season. The Club intends to hold another dance in the near future, and it is hoped that a greater number of the Alumni athletes will be present at this Athletic Social.

Dopester's Den

Old Dopey really lived up his name last issue. The Spiders of Richmond and the Lions of Columbia upset all the experts so amateur Dopey doesn't feel too gloomy after all. Here's the way Dopey likes 'em in tomorrow's gridiron battles:

ARMY to beat DUKE	NOTRE DAME over IOWA
CALIFORNIA over WASHINGTON	OHIO STATE over MINNESOTA
CORNELL over PRINCETON	PENN to sink NAVY
HOLY CROSS to outfox HARVARD	So. CALIFORNIA over STANFORD
MICHIGAN to tame ILLINOIS	TEXAS to find RICE tricky
INDIANA to down NEBRASKA	HOPKINS over RANDOLPH MACON

Payne & Merrill

Outfitters for Men and Boys
315 NORTH CHARLES STREET
BALTIMORE... MARYLAND

Paring Job Faces Reitz

'Somebody has to be cut from this squad, but the big problem is deciding who it's going to be.' No doubt, thoughts of this nature are running rampant in Lefty Reitz's head these days, as he sends 23 basketball aspirants through their paces. The veteran Greyhound Coach has had his charges pounding the hardwood since September 30, and progress is coming along satisfactorily.

Bernie Saltysiak, who cavorted for the Evergreen quint last season, is currently sidelined with a knee injury. Paul Feeley, Sid Roche and Bucky Ward, also members of last year's team, are making a bid to retain their berths. Wish Galvin. Tom Gisriel, Jim Lacy, Ed McGarry, Gene O'Connor, Frank Scrivener, Jack Wintz and Bill Davis, all of whom sported the Green and Gray colors before they went into the service, are ready to again ply their wares for Loyola. Don Galloway and Bill Johnson, former St. Paul's School standouts; Bob Barry, Bill Ferguson, Stu Galloway, James O'Connor and Buzz Strickler, ex-Loyola High school basketballers; Andy O'Donnell, from St. Ann's High in Freeland, Pa.; Fred Olinger, presently recovering from an appendectomy, stalwart at Central High in New Manchester, Indiana; John Whalen, who did his high school playing in Lexington, Massachusetts; Len Saltysiak, 4-year player at Towson Catholic; and Jim Bailey, who hails from Abington, Pa., round out the hopefuls wrangling for a spot on the team.

Loyola Star Trains Rigorously For Important Game With Navy

by M. F. Mackey

This is a story of a certain variety 'athlete'. You know, the guy who cuts out the fags when you're chain smoking, who eats raw carrots and drinks milk while you're packing away the French-fries and downing the 100 proof.

Because he's a Loyola athlete, there's just a little more emphasis on the perfection he's got to achieve. There's that big Navy game coming up. Loyola's been trying to beat Navy for ages—well, anyway since the time Al Smith lost the election and the pope never came over in a submarine.

Tortuous Training

He's out there on the track, rain or shine, this Loyola champion athlete, getting his legs and wind into shape. Go over to the gym some day; watch him pounding the boards; listen to Lefty plead for speed and deception.

He goes to bed so early at night his back is permanently scarred with bed-spring impressions. So what if he's scrimmaged so hard his dental equipment looks like a boarding house comb—or his breathing sounds like a Bromo-Seltzer singing commercial? He's going to beat Navy, brother; after that he doesn't care if they hang him in the Smithsonian.

C. E. KIMMEL & CO.

217 E. Mt. Royal Ave.
Distributors — U. S. Tires

Phone South 0864

Louis J. Heying

BAKERY

William and West Sts.

Sports Calendar

Soccer

Oct. 25—Western Maryland—Away
Nov. 2—Univ. of Virginia—Home
Nov. 9—Washington College—Away

Cross Country

Nov. 1—Hopkins—Away
Pending—M-D Conference Meet

Blue Jays Down Greyhounds, 3-2

In a nip and tuck soccer game, Johns Hopkins University defeated the Hounds at Evergreen last Wednesday by a score of 4 to 2.

Hopkins was the first to go ahead when Cornish made the first tally in the opening minutes of the game. Heimie Linz of Loyola came right back to tie the score, intercepting a pass from Cooper, Hopkins goalie. As the first quarter drew to a close, Heyman chalked up the second score for Hopkins.

Although there was no scoring in the second quarter, Loyola far surpassed Hopkins in passing and kicking. The half ended with Hopkins in front, 2 to 1.

In the third quarter, on a foul shot, Pappenmeister of the Blue Jays slide the ball past Pete Starlings, Loyola's goalie, for the third and final Hopkins score. Bill Linz immediately retaliated on a foul shot to make the score 3 to 2.

The fourth period was highlighted with a beautiful set up play to Jim Murphy by Bill Linz, which missed the tying point by inches.

Throughout the game, with the help of numerous interceptions by Ray Bevans, the Hounds had many other opportunities to score but failed to register other goals.

Harriers Bow To Gallaudet

The Gallaudet harriers played the role of host and victor by a score of 19-17 in a cross-country meet with the Greyhounds on October 16. The well officiated meet was run over a rugged but plainly marked course which had to be partly completed a second time to make up the three miles.

Loyola's team, consisting of five freshmen, did amazingly well, considering the fact that for four of the five men it was a first cross-country race, and the first race of the season run over a strange course.

Brown Sets Record

A new course record was set as Loyola's George Brown finished first in 15:54.8, thirty seconds ahead of James Hines of Gallaudet. Larry Atkinson, former cinderkicker at St. Charles College, had to fight very hard to win fourth place from Robert Lee. Tom D'Alesandro, up from Loyola High, and Jim Kaufman, who ran J. V. track at Poly, alternately finished in sixth and eighth positions, while Jim Mitchell, cut by severe pain, managed to finish tenth.

There is still a greater need for new blood on the Greyhound team with four tough meets facing the harriers. Seven men make up a full team, and it is of great importance to the final team score that a full team be entered in each race.

Results Of Race

George Brown	Loyola	15:54.8
John Hines	Gallaudet	16:24
George Marshall	Gallaudet	16:46.5
Larry Atkinson	Loyola	16:54
Robert Lee	Gallaudet	16:55.2
Tom D'Alesandro	Loyola	17:12.5
Richard Hocerar	Gallaudet	17:18
Jim Kaufman	Loyola	18:55
Edward Ruge	Gallaudet	19:23.5
Jim Mitchell	Loyola	19:58
Charles Warren	Gallaudet	21:10

Initial Block L Dance Successful

With Bill Slade and his orchestra supplying the music, almost 300 couples ushered in the Block L Club's social season at an informal dance held in the gymnasium on October 11.

Proceeds from the dance will be used for the purchase of an electric score board which will be installed in the gym for the coming basketball campaign. A portion of the proceeds are to be used for the erection of a sign which will list all the home athletic contests. The sign will be placed on the corner of Charles St. and Cold Spring Lane.

Plans for the dance were formulated by the club at a meeting held late in September. The organization intends to hold several dances during the year.

Loyola Modelers

LET A
LOYOLA GRADUATE
SERVE YOUR NEEDS
IN

MODEL PLANES
BOATS, TRAINS, TOOLS
& SUPPLIES

Ziggy's Hobby
House

305 W. Fayette St.
Balto., Md. LE. 5574

Give A Gift
With a School or Lodge Seal

The
John Trockenbrot Co.
Designers of

School, College, Club, Lodge
Rings and Pins

BANQUET FAVORS, TROPHIES

310 North Paca Street

VERnon 1052

Gifts with
Loyola College Seals

Dean Reveals Exam Results

"The results of the Graduate Record Examinations administered to the Senior and Sophomore Classes last year showed that as a whole the seniors did far better work than the sophomores," said the Rev. Joseph A. d'Inwilliers, S. J., Dean of Studies. "This fact would seem to demonstrate that the last two collegiate years are a necessary factor for a deeper comprehension of the material presented. The results further proved that the majority of students lacked knowledge in Music Appreciation and Art Recognition."

The subjects included on these examinations are Mathematics, Physical Science, Biological Science, Social Studies, Literature, Fine Arts, Perceptive Self-Expression, Vocabulary and the student's major field of study.

Loyola College has been designated as a center for the presentation of these examinations to anyone in this vicinity who is interested in testing his abilities in the prescribed subjects. The tests have been designed by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.

A large number of Graduate Schools in the United States require the results of the Graduate Record Examination as one of the prerequisites for admission.

Vets Secure New Members

Plans for the initiation of new members and reorganization of the constitution highlight the present activities of the Veterans' Club.

Some difficulty has been experienced in attempting to fit the club's meeting time and place to the schedule of the many veterans who wish to join or retain membership. John J. Sweeney, Jr., president, is now determining a time agreeable to the large majority of the veterans.

Instead of the monthly collection of dues, as provided for in the constitution, the veterans hope to eliminate all fees except a slight initiation fee for new members. Membership cards will be issued soon to new enrollees.

"Many of the original functions of the Veterans Club," explained Sweeney, "have been taken over by the Veterans Administration Office in the Science Building.

"The club will continue in existence, however, with these two purposes. First, it will serve to encourage veterans to enter extra-curricular activities. Second, by means of dances and socials, the club will serve as a connecting link between the social life of the veteran and the campus."

Roofing
Sheet Metal - Home Insulation
EDW. G. FICK & CO.
2008-10 Harford Ave.
University 6620

For your FAVORITE RECORDS
classical or swing
visit the

H. C. Co.
RECORD SHOP
Fifth Floor

HOCHSCHILD KOHN & CO.

Seniors Propose Yearbook; Elect Editor Next Tuesday

"Two major projects confront the Senior Class for the coming year," said John G. Arthur, Jr., Class president, recently. "They are the publication of the Senior Yearbook, the Evergreen, and the Senior Ball."

Beginning the first preparations for the Yearbook, the Class is soliciting nominations for the editorship of the 1947 Evergreen. Editorial appointments will be announced next Tuesday.

Elect New Officers

To replace the vacancies in the Class offices, formed by the enlistment of John E. Mudd, president, in the Army and the sudden death of George J. Lochner, treasurer, elections were held last Friday, October 18.

Arthur, vice-president, automatically moved into the presidency. William Shea was elected vice-president in his place and Walter Connor, treasurer. Peter J. Malloy continues as secretary.

Committee Studies Yearbook

In an effort to determine costs of the various types of possible yearbooks, a committee of Edward Noon, William Wiegand and Thomas Lally was appointed.

"There are three types of yearbooks," said Wiegand, "which are available for the Seniors' approval. The first, and most fitting, is the large yearbook with complete coverage of all school activities. The second, medium-sized, will cover only class activities and sports, with a brief mention of extra-curriculars. Our last choice will be the Classbook which treats only of the Senior Class."

Jurisdictional Problem

It is not certain whether the

John G. Arthur, Jr.

forty or more men who expect to graduate from Loyola in July will participate in the planning of the Yearbook together with the present Class which will finish school in May.

This problem will be settled by the Student Council after consultation with the members of both classes.

Class Of '42 Plans Card And Bingo Party

A Card and Bingo Party will be held at St. Ignatius Hall, Calvert and Monument Streets, on Thursday, November 7, at 8:15 p.m.

The affair will be sponsored by the members of the class of '42. Mr. P. Edward Kaltenbach, instructor of English at Loyola, is chairman of the function.

Tickets are 60 cents apiece, and will be on sale at the door. Proceeds from the Party will be turned over to the Chapel Fund.

Baltimore Fumigators
TERMITE CONTROL
3718 Yosemite Ave.
Liberty 7070

Meyer & Thalheimer
STATIONERS
PRINTERS
10 N. Howard Street

MIKE WISE
156 N. East Ave.
Baltimore, Md.

GEO. J. STORCK
LUMBER — MILLWORK — WALLBOARDS — HARDWARE
PAINTS — CUSTOM MILLWORK
2406-18 Greenmount Ave. UN. 3500

Need a Tux For The Prom?

SPECIAL RATES FOR LOYOLA COLLEGE STUDENTS

... Rent From ...

A. T. Jones & Son Costumers and Dress Suits
823 N. Howard Street

College Calendar

Oct. 25—First scholastic quarter ends
29—Chess match with Faculty, in Library, 8:00 p.m.
Nov. 2—Requiem Mass in Chapel, 8:00 a.m.
3—Dr. Oscar Halecki gives first lecture, in Library, 4 p.m.
7—Card party, Class of '42, benefit of Chapel Fund, Calvert and Madison Sts., 8:15 p.m.

Cole Explains Prom Plans

False rumors circulating about what will probably be Loyola's most talked-about Junior Prom were spiked late last week with the announcement of official plans for the affair by Edward Barrett, president of the Junior class, and Neil Cole, general Prom Chairman.

"The confusion that has arisen about the Prom was entirely unwarranted," said chairman Cole. "Our plans are materially unchanged, and the arrangements listed here are definite."

Bids Open To All Classes

"First of all, all classes, from freshman to senior, may purchase bids. The price remains at $7.00. Bids will be limited to 300, but there are still a number available.

"Claude Thornhill and his eighteen-piece orchestra have been definitely signed for November 23, from 9 til 1, at Evergreen. The dance will, of course, be formal."

Tables Upstairs

There will be tables and chairs on the main gym court, Cole further revealed. However, refreshments, free of charge, will be served downstairs, and may not be taken upstairs.

Prom favors will be given to Juniors only.

Rotating Spotlights

"Decorations planned include rotating colored spotlights on the gymnasium ceiling," Cole continued.

"Two names will be listed as patrons on the Prom Program for $1.00. Single names are 75 cents."

Francis C. Dorsey
INCORPORATED
Engineers and Contractors
Plumbing, Heating and
Electric Construction
4520 Schenley Rd. Un. 3103-4

Sign Up For A
SHOPPING COURSE
At

HUTZLER BROTHERS @
P. S.—You can "cut" shopping
by phoning
Saratoga 4321

Kelly Elected As President Last Tuesday

Warren Kelly, a member of the May Freshman Class, was overwhelmingly elected president of the Freshman Class in an election last Tuesday. Kelly is president of both the September and May Freshmen.

James E. Bowen was elected vice-president, Raymond E. Reuling, secretary, and Alger Zaph, Jr., treasurer.

Crenson Conducts Elections

Gus A. Crenson, vice-president of the Student Council, was the officer in charge of the elections. He was assisted by Edward C. Barrett, secretary of the Student Council.

Because of the difficulty in gathering together all the members of the Freshman Class at one time, a special ballot box was set up in the cafeteria and freshmen were asked to drop their ballots in it.

On the first ballot, for nominations, in addition to the four new officers of the class, John C. Jarrett, Donald C. Galloway, Robert M. Rogers and Knudsen were on the list of nominees.

No Hallowe'en Dance

Albert G. Fitzgerald, president of the February Freshman Class, has announced that the Freshman Welcoming Dance for the new members of the school has been postponed until sometime in November. The dance has tentatively been scheduled for Hallowe'en, October 31.

Negotiations to secure the services of Rudy Killian's orchestra have begun under the direction of Andrew B. Metzger, Jr., chairman of the dance.

Pup caps and ties, to be worn by all September freshmen, have not yet arrived.

"THRIFT IS WISE SPENDING"
Learn About Thrift
by shopping at

SEARS

SEARS ROEBUCK & CO.
North Avenue & Harford Rd.

We Telegraph Flowers
FRED C. BAUER
Florist and Nurserymen
181-187 Gittings Ave.,
Baltimore, Md.

PEROUTKA'S AUTO SERVICE

3200 E. FAYETTE ST.
Baltimore-24, Md.

The Greatest Shows

In Radio Are On

WBAL

1090 on your dial